

December 12th is Poinsettia Day. This day was created to celebrate this popular holiday plant that is actually a plant native to Mexico. Create a paper craft that you and your class could complete to help celebrate this day.